

SOMETHING has come over the spirit of Salt Lake society, for, no sooner is a week of moderate gaiety passed than a period of absolute quietude follows, as if a little exertion brought on such weariness that an extended rest was necessary. The present period is the period of rest. Never have two weeks come together, except in Lent, showing so few plans for anything save housecleaning. A few luncheons and some informal dinners, so quiet as to be almost "secret society" events, have been the only breaks in the monotony of the past week. And for the coming seven days there is "nothing doing" except the opening of the Country club next Saturday, unless the rain continues. Later in the month there will be a few interesting weddings, the announcements for which have not yet been made, the old idea of May marriages making it imperative that these events be out of the way or kept till June.

The only society marriage of the coming week is that of Mrs. Louise Smedley Smith and William H. Curtin of St. Joseph, Mo., which takes place Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smedley. Unfortunately the wedding, which was to have been one of the chief social events of the season, is to be a very quiet one owing to the sorrow in the family of the bride. Mr. Curtin, accompanied by his sister, Miss Julia Curtin, will arrive this morning from their home.

TIFFANY FAVRILE GLASS.

Everybody in America has heard of the Tiffany Glass. Many have seen it and bought it because of its rare beauty but until now no merchant has been able to obtain the agency for selling it in Utah.

It is now our good fortune to be able to announce to our patrons that we have been appointed the only selling agents of Tiffany Glass in Utah and will this week display the very latest creations from the Tiffany furnaces at our store.

We have added this line believing it to be the only one lacking to complete our stock and make it the most artistic and meritorious collection of wedding gift lines in the Inter-Mountain Country.

The Tiffany Glass is not a copy but is from a new formula by which a material is obtained of limitless range, depth and brilliancy of color, and with a greater diversity of tone and variety of texture than any previously known.

There are a few attempted imitations but none that imitate. Each piece of the genuine Tiffany Glass is marked L. C. T. and is sold throughout the country at the price established by the makers.

We have two hundred and sixty-four pieces ranging in price from one to fifty-five dollars each and no two pieces are alike.
